

THAT'S US

SIMACO GMBH stands for the innovative development of printing inks and highly specialised varnishes. The company, which belongs to the HEUFT group, serves the most varied markets in the course of this – from the food, beverage and pharmaceutical industries and logistics to the construction, automotive and metalworking sectors. Extensive checks from the raw material to the finished product ensure that all products comply with our high quality criteria.

COLOUR IS OUR PASSION

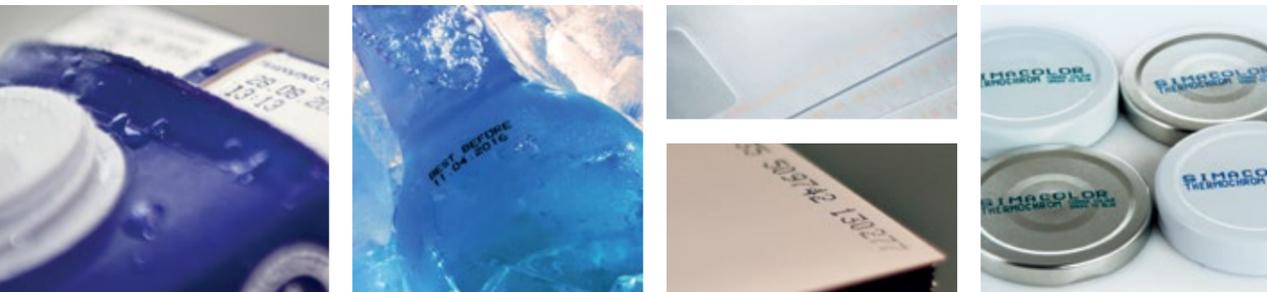

YOUR SPECIFICATION IS OUR TASK

Our creative team develops individual solutions for every application in addition to a portfolio which includes more than 600 standard products such as printing inks and special varnishes for the most varied substrates, materials and tasks.

Whether sterilisation, pasteurisation, cold or UV resistant, solvent resistant, food-safe or fluorescent: we have the right solution for you and your task.

- product and packaging marking – from coding fresh food to packaging prints
- special varnishes and printing inks – marking even under extreme conditions
- market leader in letter coding and automation
- economical, cost-effective premium inks for all inkjet, spray and offset printing processes

→ Whether inside, outside, raw, cooked, unpackaged or packaged – whether soft, hard, rusty or simply paper: We can provide you with the ideal printing ink!

YOUR PROFESSIONAL PARTNER FOR PRINTING INKS

We work closely together with printer manufacturers and supply high-quality printing inks, MakeUps and cleaning agents to over 70 countries of the world as your expert partner in the area of industrial inkjet printers. We set international standards with the basic research carried out in our own laboratory based on our 30 years worth of experience. SIMACO supplies long-lasting print results as an especially cost-effective supplier – reliably and sustainably.

In addition we ensure the full availability of your marking devices with a team of experienced service technicians as well as an extensive range of spare parts.

→ Proactive and efficient – you are always one step ahead with us!

